Dear Mr. Hays:

Thank you for your letter of 10 February regarding the status of [redacted] application for employment.

I am told by our Director of Personnel that we are very interested in [redacted] for an assignment as an Intelligence Analyst, GS-O7, with one of our research offices.

Current manpower restrictions have temporarily postponed the final processing of [redacted] application; however, the major portion of the processing has been satisfactorily completed and the remainder should be accomplished in the near future. When this has been done, it may be necessary to defer his employment for a time until an opening develops for him. We cannot predict the timing precisely but it should be within the next several months.

Your interest is appreciated and we shall advise you of our further action on [redacted] employment.

Faithfully yours,

((Signed)) Marshall S. Carter
